

I wholeheartedly support the referenced petition, with one exception:

The Morse requirement for Amateur Extra Class should revert to the 20 word-per-minute value used in past years. This would tend to promote more on-the-air practice, using Morse, thus providing some actual air time experience to those who wish to upgrade. As in any endeavor, time spent in practice results in improved performance.